LANCER PROMISE MERIT & NAMED SCHOLARSHIP/PARTNERS IN FAITH GRANT

Applicants should attach an essay response to:

Holy Cross Academy Mission Statement: Empowered by the Gospel message of Jesus, Holy Cross, a Catholic high school, develops young men and women to become life-long learners and well-informed citizens through dynamic spiritual, academic, co-curricular, and community activities.

Essay Question: Please describe how your current and future Catholic education will prepare you to be a life-long learner and well-informed citizen?

Guidance to an excellent essay:

- Well organized and clearly focused
- Contains developed details that demonstrate a clear understanding of Servant Leadership
- Contains examples supporting how the student demonstrates three characteristics of Servant Leadership
- Free from errors in grammar, mechanics, and/or spelling

MERIT SCHOLARSHIPS, NAMED SCHOLARSHIPS & NEED-BASED GRANTS

Please check here to be considered for a Lancer Promise Merit Scholarship and/or a Named Scholarship Award.

- Students who demonstrate exceptional academic ability and/or talents and promise to contribute to the Holy Cross community can apply for a Lancer Promise Merit Scholarship and Named Scholarships Award.

Please check here to be considered for a Lancer Promise Need-Based Grant also.

- Applicants, who wish to be considered for need-based scholarships, must complete a FACTS Grant and Aid application for the 2017-2018 school year. Beginning November 1, families can apply directly online by visiting holycrossacademy.org.

APPLICATION DEADLINE

Friday, December 16, 2016

CONDITIONS OF ELIGIBILITY

Each applicant must demonstrate commitment to scholastic effort, willingness to work to full potential, and exhibit an appreciation for the opportunity.

NEXT STEPS

The Office of Institutional Advancement will process the submitted Lancer Promise Award forms with the appropriate parties and send each student applicant a determination letter. The determination letter from the Office of Institutional Advancement will include Lancer Promise Merit Scholarship Awards based on merit and Named Scholarship Awards based on various criteria. A separate letter will be issued from the Finance Office determining Lancer Promise Grant Awards for financial need.

QUESTIONS

Please direct any questions or concerns to Kim Chiarelli, Director of Admission, at 856-461-5400 X3007 or by email at kim.chiarelli@holycrosshighschool.org

If the student chooses to accept a Lancer Promise Merit Scholarship or a Named Scholarship, an acceptance form will need to be signed and returned to the Finance Office by the required deadline.

Thank you and good luck!
